

Print this page for each child, cut out the way and put it into the chart according to the exercise. When the route is correct, glue it to the worksheet.

On the following page you can find an empty square grid which you can use to create your own exercise.

